Martyrdom of 21 brave Sikhs staged in Annual Fest of MRSC The world famous war was fought in Saragarhi in 1897

The Battle of Saragarhi is included in the eight famous battles of the world. In this war, 21 Jabanj Sikhs had killed hundreds of Afghan tribesmen who attacked the Saragarhi Fort and were also martyred themselves. This war, which took place in 1897, was once again brought to life with a dance drama at Yuvansh 25, the annual fest of Maharaja Ranjit Singh College. The war fought with the proclamation of Jo Bole So Nihal Sat Shri Famine infused heroic rasa in the audience. After the martyrdom of the war, the spectators were compelled to ponder a lot in the silence that engulfed the premises. The grand college building was converted into a fort for presentation. Colourful programs were presented in the 'Yuvansh', the 25th annual festival of Maharaja Ranjit Singh College. Chief Guest Higher Education, Youth and Welfare Minister Jitu Patwari, Vice Chancellor Dr. Narendra Dhakad, Indo Friends Foundation Managing Trustee Dr. RS Makhija, Trust Member Dr. Arun Patwa, Principal Dr. Anand Nighojkar, CEO Mr. Satvinder Singh and Director Dr. Ira Bapna, Mrs. Ramandeep Kaur inaugurated the function. Dance, music, rock band along with singer artists paid tribute to the brave martyrs of the country with patriotic songs in the ceremony which started with Ganesh Vandana. When singer Ramnik Kaur sang the song 'Ae Mere Watan Ke Logon', the eyes of many people started to float. Along with the participants in the Prince-Princess Personality Contest, the administrative officials of the city and the dignitaries of the society walked the ramp. It became the most memorable moment of his life.

The artists relived the memories of the college by performing dance on floating songs. The audience was also forced to dance on Punjabi Bhangra. Higher Education Minister Shri Jitu Patwari in his remarks called upon the youth to become energetic and participate in the development of the state. He said that MRSC College is dedicated to impart quality education to the youth along with inculcating moral values. Mr. Patwari mentioned the efforts to remove the liquor shop.

Managing Trustee Dr. RS Makhija credited the achievements of the college for 25 years to the society and dedicated teachers. This has been possible only because of his unwavering faith. Principal Dr. Anand Nighojkar informed about the 25 years of academic and research activities of the college. Director Dr. Ira Bapna told about the achievements made by the college players in various sports.

Dr. RS Makhija, Mrs. Harsharan Kaur, Mr. Satwinder Singh presented shawl and shripal to Mr. Jitu Patwari at the function for their incomparable contribution in the field of school and higher education. Professors Dr. Ira Bapna, Prof. Anil Gupta, Prof. Manoj Joshi, Prof. Mahima Jain, Dr. Monica Jain, Prof. Pradeep Purey, Smt. Students Feedback

: First time in life I have participated in such kind of workshop. I have never done anything like this before. I am feeling good after participating.I enjoyed the event.- Sakina (B.Sc-I Sem)

Wonderful workshop, I haven't thought it will be like this, very creative and cool. - Devashish (BCA I Sem)

When I participate I came to know that soil made idols does not pollute. Family members also felt good and realized that POP idols should not be made as it pollute environment.I feel good to to participate in workshop, learnt something very new.

-Shardhdha Soni(B.Sc.I sem)

This was the first time when I did something creative.Thank you for this workshop because of it I realize that I can also do creative things. .-Parul Saini(B.Sc. III Sem)

Remarks

: This was the first time when we have organized this kind of workshop. It was an initiative to make people aware about the damage we are doing to the environment by using POP Ganesha Idols. Making Ganesha idols by self becomes very easy after this workshop. Next day of the workshop i.e. 30 August we put the exhibition of Ganesha Idols prepared by faculties and students.
