Technology Lab

The ATL (APPIN Technology Lab) sponsored Global Information Security Workforce Study has consistently recorded growth in the number of information security professionals worldwide and the number is projected to increase to almost 2 million by 2020.

Deliverables of the Training are as follows:

1. Awareness of new and Fastest growing technology.
2. Helping Student/Staff recognize and respond appropriately to real and potential security concerns.
3. Providing fresh, updated information to keep your student/staff current on new risks and what to do about them.
4. Providing information that is personally useful to your Student/staff, such as how to avoid scams, fraud, phishing, and ID theft. Information on how to protect home PCs and how to use e-mail and the Internet safely lets Student/employees know that your organization cares about them. Building good computing habits at home is as important as building those behaviours at work. Secure computing habits will transfer across environments.

Counseling Session for Internship Work, 11th July 2018

A career counseling session was conducted by Dr. Sheetal Bhasin, Head, Department of Biosciences for M.Sc. Biotechnology Semester II students for discussing future prospects in the subject. Firstly, students were enquired about their area of interest wherein they talked about going in research field, opting for teaching as career, taking up jobs in pharmaceutical and food industries etc. In this regard, students were given counseling regarding the Internship Work on the last day of their practical examination. The students were guided about various fields in which they can pursue their project work which is a part of their curriculum. They were informed about the research work which they can uptake in the college itself under the faculty members of the college. They were also provided information about different research labs such as ICAR, IARI; pharmaceutical companies like Cyano Pharma, Symbiotech Pvt. Ltd., IPCA Laboratories; food industries like Ariba Foods, Indus Food MegaPark etc. which are present nearby Indore. Students were motivated to uptake their internship work seriously as it will help them in getting better placements in the future.
